Description

Experience luxury and breathtaking views in our premium holiday home collection in Spain. Explore all we have to offer!

5 bedrooms, 4 bathrooms, 10 Sleeps

The villa is an extraordinary property, perfect to grant tranquillity, awe and proximity to things to do and explore. Unwind in this luxurious and spacious farmhouse, completely renovated to highlight both rustic and contemporary elements in this modern and sustainable family home for up to eight guests. Perched on top of a mountainside, you have some of the greatest vistas you may ever see in all of Europe.

Whilst outdoors reflects countryside lodgings, entering the villa you will find that the home sits like a modern masterpiece. The walls and areas have been decorated with the finest furniture and art pieces to add character and colour to what are neutral and dark tones. In the living area, as well as televisions to watch flicks, a fancy fireplace will help make the nights more tender. This home comes with everything you need to enjoy a fully catered stay, including a clean-lined kitchen, perfectly set with everything you need to whip up amazing dishes. You can enjoy food with constant panoramic views, as the Barcelona designer of this property has ensured that windows and outdoor areas face the hills and valleys of the area.

The retreat features a main house, where eight guests can sleep across four bedrooms. Three rooms host double-beds and one houses twin singles, so there's no need to fuss over sleeping arrangements and there's even a separate lodging on the estate, so you can bring over an additional two more guests. The casita has been set with a bathroom, a private kitchen and another living room and a bedroom with another double bed.

Outdoors, you will understand the essence of this property. Granting panoramic views of the hills, valleys and mountains of Girona, you will be captivated and mesmerised every moment you spend out here. You can enjoy views on outdoor seating on the terrace, or while you dine alfresco, as the kitchen area and dining table opens up to the terrace. When it gets hot, or you feel to take it easy, head into the infinity-edged pool, natural and without chlorine or salt!

Catalonia extending across the north-east of Spain is abundant with beaches and bays and sublime coastal nooks and crannies to uncover. Large towns such as Badalona and La Bisbal d'Empordà will offer you tonnes to keep you busy whilst smaller charming and quaint villages such as Santa Pellaia and Llafranc, offer a spectrum of buzzing and mellow settings! From the villa, it is clear to see the sheer beauty at your disposal. The landscape is coated with towering mountains, covered in sheets of emerald green fauna. Your first activity, naturally, should be a hike or mountain biking of the exquisite peaks that cover the two Natural Parks that the villa is located between.

This remarkable villa brings comfort and style to your stay and supports a whopping ten guests, so you can bring a whole additional family if you want to. The surroundings are magical and will captivate children with panoramic vistas of the rolling fields, valleys and mountains that surround the villa. Along with four double beds, there is the choice of two single beds, perfect for siblings and a separate small home, known as a casita. Here kids can enjoy additional exclusivity along with the privacy this mountain top estate provides.
